

CONTACT

glen.golightly@alumni.usc.edu

Glen R. Golightly

QUALIFICATIONS

Experienced filmmaker, journalist and publicist who thrives on working in teams or individually.

WORK HISTORY

Dec. 2009 – present -- Freelance film/TV producer
Self employed

Production supervisor for feature "5th & Alameda." Line producer for music videos and industrial shoots. Key set production assistant for "Dirty Laundry" pilot for Fox Television and "Little Women, Big Cars" for Disney/Vugaru. Production assistant experience at the 2010 Independent Spirit Awards and Universal Virtual Stage. Served as a producer's assistant at Flaming Angel Films managing the office and schedule.

March 2001 – Nov. 2009 -- Senior publicist
The Boeing Company

Pioneered use of webcasts to connect employees in far-flung groups such as corporate security and Information Technology. Increased visibility of the company's R&D group with video news releases, web presence, news media events and pitching individual reporters. Coordinated with production companies for use of Boeing facilities for pilot shoots. Also researched and scheduled interviewees for documentary filmmakers.

Aug. 1999 – Feb. 2001 – Houston bureau chief space.com

Founded and supervised news bureau focused on breaking news in human spaceflight. Successfully combined multimedia elements to tell compelling and informative stories online.

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES

Professional writer with news, public relations, film and marketing credits. Advanced proficiency with Windows and Mac, Microsoft Office, EP Scheduling and Budgeting. Basic proficiency with Final Cut Pro and Photoshop. Proficient in photography/videography, lighting and sound.

EDUCATION

Master of Professional Writing – 2006
University of Southern California

Certificate in Film/TV Directing -- 2010
UCLA Extension

ACHIEVEMENTS

Writer/director of a short film screened by the 2010 Houston Comedy Film Fest. Produced short film named best comedy at 2011 Philadelphia Independent Film Fest.

